Pro Musica Presents a USO Show “American Spirit”

Keystone Theatre

Saturday, May 16 at noon.

Tickets are $6 in advance & $8 at the door. Call 570-268-ARTS (2787) to reserve tickets

Bradford County’s talented Pro Musica group will be performing at the Keystone Theatre on Saturday, May 16th at noon. The show “USO – American Spirit” is presented in honor of all service men and women who have, at any time, served in our country’s military forces. The concert is scheduled to follow the unveiling of the Hometown Heroes Banner project sponsored by Bradford County Commissioner, Mark Smith, and Kelly Bradley at 11:00am at the American Legion in Towanda.

The concert and the banner project are scheduled to tie into Armed Forces Day, which is May 16th this year. Armed Forces Day was created in 1949 when the military services were consolidated in the Department of Defense. Armed Forces Day is celebrated on the third Saturday in May. Tickets to the ProMusica show can be obtained by calling the arts council at 268-2787. Ticket prices are $6.00 in advance and $8.00 at the door.
