

Contact:
Elaine Poost
elaine@bcrac.org

570.268.ARTS (2787)

Press Release

For Immediate Release

OYW Alumni Showcase

Keystone Theatre

May 30th at 7:30 PM

Tickets are $8.00 Call 570-268-ARTS (2787) or 265-3834 to reserve tickets

On Saturday, May 30th at 7:30 PM, the Bradford County Regional Arts Council and the Outstanding Young Woman Program are joining together to celebrate outstanding young women from the past two decades in a presentation at the Keystone Theatre. In a show aimed at spotlighting the achievements of these women following their participation, the community will be treated to talents of these young women once again.

OYW is a program designed to support talented young women as they begin on their journey following high school. Following up on past and present participants in the OYW program allows the community to applaud the accomplishments of these women, as well as reaffirm the importance of programs such as the OYW.

Participants in the program include: Kensey D. Abbott (Troy), Kendra Birdsall (Troy), Melissa Castillo (Towanda), Ashlee Doss (Wyalusing), Kati Fulkerson (Towanda), Kellie Goodman (Wyalusing), Hanako Henty (Towanda), Danielle Kerline (Troy), Megan Kerlin (Troy), Robin Kerlin (Troy), Susan Neiley Kilmer (Wyalusing), Sarah Klinger (Athens), Kachine Kulick (Towanda), Andrea Kuntz (Towanda), Kelly Stanton Rocchi (Wyalusing), Ashley Spencer

For Immediate Release

Nouri (Towanda), Leisl Van Haute (Towanda), Jillian Vanderpool (Towanda), Carolyn Weed (Towanda), Jamie Wilcox (Wyalusing). Tickets to this event are $8.00 and proceeds will go to support the OYW scholarship program.

Contact Elaine Poost at the arts council for additional information or tickets.

This performance is part of BCRAC's community mission to support the arts.

Ten outstanding women from the community are sponsors of this event: Maureen Beirne, Irma Henson, Penni Eldredge-Martin, Sarah Dunn, Vicki Schmidt, Nanette Good, Tina Pickett, Valerie Kinney, Diane Place, and Jody Place.