

Contact:
Elaine Poost
info@bcrac.org

570.268.ARTS (2787)

Press Release

OYW Alumni Showcase Benefit Performance

Keystone Theatre

Saturday, May 30th at 7:30 PM

Tickets are $8.00 Call 570-268-ARTS (2787) to reserve tickets

The Outstanding Young Woman Program and the Bradford County Regional Arts Council have teamed up to present outstanding young women from the past decade in concert on May 30th at 7:30PM at the Keystone Theatre in Towanda. The concert event will be benefit the OYW scholarship program and the Keystone Theatre Balcony Restoration project.

Ten outstanding women from the community have joined the effort in sponsoring the event honoring the accomplishments of nineteen of Bradford county's talented women. Sponsors include: Maureen Beirne, Irma Henson, Penni Eldredge-Martin, Sarah Dunn, Vicki Schmidt, Nanette Good, Tina Pickett, Valerie Kinney, Diane Place, and Jody Place.

Kellie Goodman, a 1987 graduate of Wyalusing Valley High School and the 1987 Junior Miss and Performing Arts award winner, will be the evening's emcee. Participants in the program include: Kensey D. Abbott (Troy), Kendra Birdsall (Troy), Melissa Castillo (Towanda), Ashlee Doss (Wyalusing), Kati Fulkerson (Towanda), Kellie Goodman (Wyalusing), Hanako Henty (Towanda), Danielle Kerline (Troy), Megan Kerlin (Troy), Robin Kerlin (Troy), Susan Neiley Kilmer (Wyalusing), Sarah Klinger (Athens), Kachine Kulick (Towanda), Andrea Kuntz (Towanda), Kelly Stanton Rocchi (Wyalusing), Ashley Spencer Nouri (Towanda), Leisl Van Haute (Towanda), Jillian Vanderpool (Towanda), Jamie Wilcox (Wyalusing).

Tickets to this event are $8.00 and can be obtained by calling the arts council at 268-2787 or Cynthia Young at 265-3834.

For Immediate Release