The Bradford County Regional Arts Council's Nightlife on the Susquehanna opens its 2009-10 season with the famed western-swing, boogie and roots-music group, Asleep at the Wheel, September 4th 7:30 PM at the Keystone Theatre in Towanda, PA.

Asleep at the Wheel is part of the Nightlife Touring Artists season, which will highlight artists from across the country including the bluesy-baritone voice of Leon Redbone, Shakespeare's "Much Ado about Nothing" performed by the renowned National Players, and the Grammy-award winning Turtle Island Quartet. A regional artist series, specifically celebrating artists of Pennsylvania, will include "The Gin Game" presented by the Winding River Players, the deeply moving performance of puppet artistry by the Cashore Marionettes, and the rich sounds of the fascinating Latin American Harp performed local harpist, Jaime Castillo and his group Café Y Petroleo.

The Nightlife on the Susquehanna is part of BCRAC's Live Performance mission. Complete information can be obtained at the BCRAC website, www.bcrac.org, listed under live performances. Tickets to Asleep at the Wheel are $25 and can be reserved by call BCRAC at 570-268-ARTS (2787). The show is sponsored by Moore's Auto in Wysox.
