Last Call for Missoula Children's Theatre Auditions

Troy High School Memorial Auditorium

Monday, September 21, 2009 at 4:00PM

Missoula Children's Theatre will be holding open auditions for students in grades Kindergarten through 12th grade for their community production of "King Arthur's Quest" on Monday, September 21 at 4:00PM at the Troy High School Memorial Auditorium. Students wishing to audition should arrive a few minutes early to register for the auditions.

There is no fee for participating in the auditions or the week-long residency with MCT. Students will be required to be available for rehearsals throughout the ensuing week. Performances for "King Arthur's Quest" will take place at the Memorial Auditorium in Troy at 2:00PM and 7:00PM on Saturday, September 26. Admission to each show will be $5.00.

MCT is presented locally by the Bradford County Regional Arts Council and has been made possible in the Troy area through the generosity of the Citizens & Northern Bank, the Troy Area School District Foundation, the Troy Cobblestones, and Cherilyn Ayers. For additional information about the production in Troy, contact the Bradford County Regional Arts Council at 570.268.2787.
